CALL WARRANTS RISK DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

1. The purpose of this statement is to inform you that the risk of loss in purchasing call warrants can be substantial. You should therefore assess if the purchase of call warrants is suitable for you in light of your financial circumstance. In deciding whether to purchase call warrants you should be aware of the following:-
 - the purchaser of a call warrant is subject to the risk of losing the full purchase price of the call warrant and all transaction cost;
 - in order to realize any value from a call warrant, it is necessary to sell the call warrants or exercise the call warrants on or before their expiry date;
 - under certain conditions, it may become difficult to sell the call warrants;
 - upon exercise of the call warrants, the issuer may settle its obligations via actual delivery of the underlying assets, in cash or a combination of both depending on the terms of the issue of the call warrants;
 - placing of contingent orders, such as “stop-loss” or “stop-limit” orders, will not necessary limit your losses to the intended amount. Market conditions may not make it possible to execute such order; and
 - the high degree of leverage that is obtainable from call warrants because of the small initial outlay can work against you as well as for you. The use of leverage can lead to large losses as well as gains.
2. This brief statement, cannot disclose all the risks and other aspects of purchasing call warrants. You should therefore carefully study the terms and conditions of any call warrants before you decide to purchase. If you are in doubt in relation to any aspect of this statement or the terms of a call warrant, you should consult your broker.
